Editor's Message

An important reminder Lions, this next meeting is at The Lucky Wok Restaurant on Jan. 13th with socializing at 6:30 and dinner at 7:00 pm. Remember we will be having guests, so please extend a warm welcome to one and all. Hope everyone had a very Happy New Year and that you have all been staying warm, this cold spell has taken a toll on everyone. We can only hope it killed off some of the flu bugs that were floating around. Looking forward to seeing all of you at the meeting Tues. Jan. 13th, Chito always puts on a great meal for us. Don't forget to mark on your calendar that the January 27th meeting has been cancelled which means Tuesday February 10th will be the next meeting at the Car Barn.

yours in Lionism,

Geri Vary Bulletin Editor

A New Year's Prayer For the Elderly:

God, grant me the senility to forget the people I never liked anyway,

The good fortune to run into the ones that I do,

And the eyesight to tell the difference.

(taken from the Poplar Hill Lions Bulletin January 2015)

Grandchildren say the darndest things !

My young grandson called the other day to wish me Happy Birthday. He asked me how old I was, and I told him, 80. My grandson was quiet for a moment, and then he asked, "Did you start at 1?"

A grandfather was delivering his grandchildren to their home one day when a fire truck zoomed past. Sitting in the front seat of the fire truck was a Dalmatian dog.

The children started discussing the dog's duties. "They use him to keep crowds back," said one child.

"No," said another. "He's just for good luck.."

A third child brought the argument to a close. "They use the dogs," she said firmly, "to find the fire hydrants."

A 6-year-old was asked where his grandma lived. "Oh," he said, "she lives at the airport and when we want her, we just go get her. Then, when we're done having her visit, we take her back to the airport."

Grandpa is the smartest man on earth! He teaches me good things, but I don't get to see him enough to get as smart as him.

My Grandparents are funny, when they bend over, you hear gas leaks and they blame their dog.

When my grandson asked me how old I was, I teasingly replied, "I'm not sure."

"Look in your underwear, Grandpa," he advised.

"Mine says I'm 4 to 6."

When my grandson Billy and I entered our vacation cabin, we kept the lights off until we were inside to keep from attracting pesky insects. Still, a few fireflies followed us in. Noticing them before I did, Billy whispered, "It's no use Grandpa. Now the mosquitoes are coming after us with flashlights."
