British Humour at it's best

The British train was quite crowded, and a Canadian soldier walked the entire length looking for a seat, but the only seat left was taken by a well dressed, middle-aged, French woman's poodle.

The war-weary soldier asked, 'Ma'am, may I have that seat?' The French woman just sniffed and said to no one in particular. 'Canadians are so rude. My little Fifi is using that seat.'

The soldier walked the entire train again, but the only seat left was under that dog. 'Please, ma'am. May I sit down? I'm very tired.' She snorted, 'Not only are you Canadians rude, you are also arrogant!'

This time the soldier didn't say a word; he just picked up the little dog, tossed it out of the train window, and sat down.

The woman shrieked, 'Someone must defend my honour! This Canadian should be put in his place!'

An English gentleman sitting nearby spoke up, 'Sir, you Canadians seem to have a penchant for doing the wrong thing. You hold the fork in the wrong hand. You drive your cars on the wrong side of the road.

And now, sir, you seem to have thrown the wrong bitch out of the window.

MORNING FUNNY:

An elderly gentleman went into the local drug store and asked the pharmacist for Viagra.

The pharmacist said "That's no problem. How many do you want?"

The man answered, "Just a few, maybe four, but cut each one in four pieces."

The pharmacist said, "That won't do you any good."

The elderly gentleman said, "That's alright. I don't need them for sex anymore. I am over 80 years old.

I just want it to stick out far enough so I don't pee on my shoes anymore.!!!!!"

"You don't look anything like the long haired, skinny kid I married 25 years ago. I need a DNA sample to make sure it's still you."

May God Give You.....

For every storm, a rainbow. For every tear, a smile. For every care, a promise and a blessing in each trial.

For every problem that life sends, a faithful friend to share. For every sigh, a sweet song & an answer for each prayer
