Happy Thanksgiving

From Your Editor

Where did September go? I can't believe it is Thanksgiving already. Looking forward to our next meeting on Tuesday October 14th at the Car Barn, hope you aren't too full of turkey it will probably be the Car Barn Special. Ha Ha!

I would like to thank all the members who sold our Trip of the Month tickets great job as usual. That being said I need to remind everyone about your club dues. If you haven't already done so please pay Lion Treasurer Wayne at the next meeting.

We canceled our last regular meeting in October to attend the Zone Advisory Meeting. Pres. George, Treasurer Wayne, Lion Bob and myself attended. It was a busy meeting, a tad bit long but very informative. Thanks to Lion Barb Tuxford for her presentation, well done. We had a lot of time to socialize with the other clubs in attendance.

The Directory for District A- 1 Lions is finally available on the new website it is much different than what we are used to but most of the information is there. If you are interested in a booklet copy of the Directory please contact Cabinet Secretary Gerald Smith or Governor John Johnston.

I am looking forward to the year as your Bulletin Editor, please send me anything you would like placed in the bulletin..

Yours in Lionism,

Geri Vary

Notice about the Santa Parade being held in Wheatley in Dec. Lions & Lioness are working on the Santa Sleigh Float again this year. Lioness Nancy has been busy creating the reindeer for this float

Old Business

The Red maple tree in memory of Lion Francis has been planted and the tree dedication ceremony at Two Creeks will be held on September 21st at 2:00 pm. Club members are encouraged to attend.

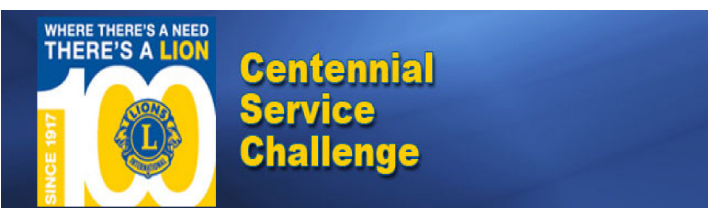

New Business

A total of 204 out of 225 tickets were sold this year on our major fundraiser our Trip of the Month Draw. Thank you to everyone who sold tickets especially our telemarketer at the meeting.

Lion Bob was asked if the club would be interested in purchasing some banners representing our Lions Club to be put up on poles around town. He will look into it and yes we are interested.

There is a Zone meeting in Leamington on Sept. 23 which is our regular meeting night, we will cancel our meeting and attend the zone meeting instead. Four people will attend Wayne, Bob, Geri and George.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:00 pm on a motion by Lion Dan Dalgleish.

The Centennial Service Challenge encourages Lions around the world to serve 100 million people by December 2017. Every club can play a part in reaching our goal.
